Dear Ma'am and Sir!

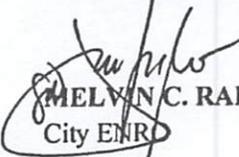

Happy International Day of Forests!

In line with the invitation of the Tayabas City Environment and Natural Resources Office (ENRO) for the 2nd Youth for Environment Activity, which includes a Nature Walk and Tree Planting on 20 March 2026 at Mt. Banahaw de Tayabas, Brgy. Lalo, Tayabas City, we would like to inform your good office that since the venue is within the Mt. Banahaw-San Cristobal Protected Landscape, the payment of the corresponding environmental fee of Php 50.00 is required in accordance with the protected area management policies.

In this regard, our target participants are members of the Youth for Environment School Organization, and we are expecting approximately sixty (60) participants from your institution. Each participant who is willing to join this event shall be advised to pay the said environmental fee. Rest assured that the collected fee will be used solely for the environmental protection and conservation of the Mt. Banahaw-San Cristobal Protected Landscape.

Together, let us make a difference in promoting environmental protection and conservation.

Yours in conservation,

MELVIN C. RADA
City ENRO
