Subj: Request for Endorsement of a UPPEJA Study

Dear Vice President Duterte:

Greetings from the Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM II).

In support of the mandate of the Second Congressional Commission on Education (EDCOM II) to undertake a comprehensive national assessment and evaluation of the performance of the Philippine education sector, the University of the Philippines President Edgardo J. Angara (UPPEJA) Fellowship Award, a legacy of Senator Edgardo J. Angara, was revived last September 2023 to conduct research on education reform based on the priority areas identified by the Commission.

Among the UPPEJA research studies, focused on enabling transformation in basic education through systems, leadership, and culture, are titled "Understanding Systems, Creative Strategies, and Enabling Leadership" by Dr. Ma. Assunta C. Cuyegkeng, Executive Director, Liliy Gokongwei Ilogochua Leadership Academy and "Building a Culture that Enables Transformation in Basic Education" by Dr. Regina Hechanova Alampay, Chief of Party, USAID RenewHealth.

For its methodology, the study will conduct a participatory action research workshop with the Department of Education Regional Directors, selected School Division Superintendents, and school principals.

In relation to this, Dr. Cuyegkeng and Dr. Alampay will conduct a workshop on "Innovations in School Governance" on April 16, 2024, from 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM at the Blue Nest, 4/F Areté, Ateneo de Manila.

Commission on Education

The workshop aims to:

- a. Showcase Mental Health as an example of innovation in school governance;
- b. Share best practices in innovation in school governance among participating school leaders; and
- c. Elicit policy recommendations on enabling innovations in school governance to support the goals of EDCOM II.

The workshop, hosted by the Ateneo de Manila University's Lily Ockengwei Ngochua Leadership Academy, in partnership with the USAID RenewHealth project, will also showcase the projects with the Department of Education (DepEd) and partner schools in developing and pilot-testing the Lusog Isip Kabataan Education and the Lusog Isip Online website for Filipino students, teachers, parents and employees.

Dr. Cuyegkeng and Dr. Alampay would like to invite all Regional Directors, one (1) Schools Division Superintendent (SDS) per region and two (2) school principals per region to attend the said workshop.

In relation to this, EDCOM II would like to respectfully request DepEd's endorsement on the attached letter from the UPPEJA Research Fellows inviting the DepEd RDs, SDSs, and school principals to this workshop.

For further information or clarifications your office may contact Ishadora S. Lim, Senior Research Policy Officer (spro2@edcom2.gov.ph) or through landline (5526601, local 5121).

Thank you and we look forward to your positive response.
