MS. CHERYL BARRIENTOS
President
Tayabas Private Schools Association
Tayabas City

Dear Ms. Barrientos.

Greetings of peace and commitment to quality education!

In line with the Department of Education's thrust to enhance the delivery of basic education and in support of the ongoing curriculum reforms, we are pleased to invite your association to be a part of the Seminar on Inclusive Education, Strengthened Senior High School Curriculum, Three-Term School Calendar in Basic Education and Recent DepEd Updates and Issuances that will be conducted for private school educators on May 26-27, 2026 at Queen Margarett Hotel Lucena City. Each school is enjoined to send a minimum of two participants for this significant academic endeavor. There will be a registration fee of Php 1,500.00 per participant for the duration of the training to defray the expenses for morning and afternoon snacks, lunch, token for the speakers, training venue and other expenses. Kindly confirm your attendance in the LCAPS group chat not later than May, 20, 2026 to facilitate the preparations for the event.

Following are the objectives of the said academic endeavor:

1. to discuss the principles, policies, and current trends in Inclusive Education and their implications for private basic education institutions;
2. to build the capacity of teachers in aligning instruction and assessment practices with the new curriculum;
3. to analyze the effects of the Strengthened Senior High School Curriculum on curriculum planning, faculty loading, learner pathways, and school operations in private schools;
4. to understand the structure, requirements, and operational implications of the Three-Term School Calendar in Basic Education for effective academic planning and school management;
5. to strengthen the capacity of school leaders in ensuring compliance with current DepEd standards, policies, and educational reforms; and
6. to develop responsive school-based action plans and implementation strategies aligned with recent educational reforms and national directions in Philippine basic education.

Your full support and participation in this significant initiative are highly encouraged as we remain committed to delivering accessible, quality, relevant, and future-ready education for all learners

Thank you very much and we look forward to your active involvement.

Sincerely,

Hazel O. Hernandez
Secretary
