SHOWING OF STAGE PLAYS OF THE HIRAYA THEATER PRODUCTION
FOR SCHOOL YEAR 2025–2026

Currently in its 18th season, the Hiraya Theater Production (HTP) invites all learners to watch stage plays that explore themes of faith, personal growth, family, and second chances for the school year 2025–2026:

Title of the Play	Synopsis
Diwata Adventure (Dance Evolution)	This original play by Rommel Chaps Manansala explores change, identity, and transformation through dance. Two generations, one rooted in tradition and the other in modern expression, collide and connect, asking if traditional dance will once again reflect our Filipino identity.
Tatlo Buo (The Second Chance)	This play follows a son's search for his amnesiac father, unfolding a journey of forgiveness and understanding. Highlighting themes of family, empathy, and resilience, Tatlo Buo offers a meaningful story and emotional performance that resonates with young audiences.
Sina DASAL	This play explores faith, personal growth, and the importance of family through real-life struggles. Its relatable themes offer students a deeper reflection on their own journeys, helping them navigate challenges and better understand the world and relationships around them.
