GGreetings!

Dear Valued Participants,

Warm greetings!

We regret to inform you that our scheduled seminar on November 24–26, 2026, has been postponed and will no longer take place on its original dates.

This decision was made due to the unavailability and lack of confirmation of the resource speakers from the Government Procurement Policy Board (GPPB), whose participation is essential to the proper conduct and delivery of the seminar.

After careful consideration, we believe it is best to reschedule the activity rather than proceed without the necessary resource speakers, who provide essential guidance and technical insights on the subject matter.

We sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this may cause, particularly to those who have already made arrangements to attend.

Please be assured that PAROA/GARAA remains committed to providing quality, impactful training programs to enhance the professional capabilities of government personnel.

The new seminar schedule will be announced as soon as the speakers and updated arrangements are confirmed.

Thank you for your understanding, patience, and continued support.

Respectfully yours,

JOEL A. OCAY

President / Executive Director

PAROA / GARAA
