PROFESSIONAL REGULATION COMMISSIOM
MEMORANDUM ORDER NO. 98
Series of 2023
December 28, 2023

TO : ALL CONCERNED OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES
Central and Regional Offices

SUBJECT : TRANSITION PERIOD FOR THE COMPLIANCE OF THE CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT (CPD) REQUIREMENT

In the implementation of the Continuing Professional Development (CPD) Act of 2016 where CPD compliance is a requirement for the renewal of Professional Identification Card (PIC) and the non-acceptance of CPD Undertaking starting January 1, 2024 per PRC Resolution No. 1577 (s. 2022), there is a need to provide a transition period for the CPD compliance, as follows:

YEAR	REQUIRED CPD CREDIT UNITS (CUs) PER YEAR, NOTWITHSTANDING THE PREVIOUSLY EXECUTED CPD UNDERTAKING
2024	15
2025	20
2026	30
2027 and onwards	45

In addition, please be reminded of the following:

1) During the transition period from December 2023 to January 2024, the transaction date is the date of payment and not the date of appointment on when to claim the PIC.

   For example:

DATE OF PAYMENT	DATE OF APPOINTMENT TO CLAIM THE PIC	WHETHER UNDERTAKING IS ACCEPTABLE
December 31, 2023	January 5, 2024	Yes
January 5, 2024	January 10, 2024	No

2) e-PIC can only be viewed and made available if the professional complies with all the requirements for PIC renewal (e.g. Certificate of Good Standing from the Accredited Integrated Professional Organization, if required, and CPD Compliance).

3) The reckoning period for the CPD compliance shall be a maximum of six (6) years before the date of the PIC renewal transaction.

4) Mode of presentation of CPD Compliance:
   - Manual presentation of Certificates to verify the date/s of conduct, or
   - Screen shot from the professional's Continuing Professional Development Accreditation System (CPDAS) account showing his/her earned CUs.

This Order shall take effect immediately.
