Dear SDS Balderas:

Mabuhay!

The City Government of Tayabas will commemorate the Celebration of *Araw ng Tayabas, marking the historic 128th Independence Day of the former Province of Tayabas, now Quezon Province, on 13 August 2026.

In this connection, we are pleased to invite the Boy Scouts of the Philippines – Tayabas City to participate in this meaningful occasion, particularly in the Parada ng Pagpupugay, which will commence at 6:00 a.m. from Barangay Mateuna and proceed to the Minor Basilica of St. Michael the Archangel, where the commemorative program will be held.

Your participation will greatly contribute to the solemnity and significance of the celebration while promoting patriotism, civic responsibility, discipline, and service among the youth. As an organization dedicated to developing responsible citizens and future leaders, the presence of the Boy Scouts will inspire participants and reinforce the values of love of country and community service.

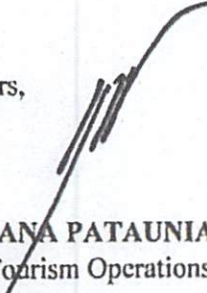

We sincerely hope for your favorable response and the participation of your scouts and scout leaders in this historic commemoration. For coordination and logistical arrangements, please contact Pat. Razalan at 0994 108 9137 or email at tourism@tayabas.gov.ph.
