Annex B: Duties and Responsibilities of Learner Rights and Protection/Child Protection Specialist in DepEd Region IV-A CALABARZON

Learner Rights and Protection/Child Protection Specialists shall have the following functions:

1. Provide technical assistance to their Schools Division Office and Schools in managing learner rights and protection concerns;
2. Assist in the referral of learner rights and protection incidents to other government or non-government agencies for appropriate interventions or further case management, if necessary;
3. Build a network and liaise with these organizations, whether government or non-government, to help Child Protection Committees in schools in referring concerns to the appropriate organization. These organizations include, but not limited to, the Barangay Councils for Child Protection (BCPCs), Women and Children's Protection Desk (WCPDs), Local/City/Municipal Social Welfare and Development Offices (LWSDOs/CSWDOs/MSWDOs), Child Protection Units (CPUs) in hospitals, the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) and child-focused non-government organizations, if necessary;
4. Create a clear directory of the partner organizations where services and various forms of assistance may be available for learner-victims. The directory shall be regularly updated and made readily available to all schools at all times, if necessary; and
5. Provide timely technical assistance to SDOs and schools in handling learner rights and protection concerns such as, but not limited to, child abuse, discrimination, exploitation, violence, and other similar acts.
