multigrade teaching and learning resources in multigrade schools. By the end of this activity, participants will be able to:

1. Identify their specific roles and responsibilities in the transparent management of Multigrade Program support funds, focusing on professional development for multigrade teachers and school heads, and the production of quality-assured teaching and learning materials aligned with the Revised K to 10 Curriculum.
2. Equip participants with the knowledge and skills necessary for the effective utilization of multigrade teaching and learning resources, integrating of appropriate pedagogical approaches and assessment strategies to enhance multigrade instruction.
3. Develop a localized strategic plan for the effective and efficient utilization of Multigrade Program Support Funds in their respective regions and divisions.

In this regard, this Office would like to invite key program implementers, including regional and division MG Program focal persons, supervisors, and principals, to participate in the orientation. To ensure equitable representation, participation slots are strictly based on the total number of multigrade schools in the division. Please refer to Annex 1 for the specific regional quota. All participants are requested to bring their laptops for use during workshops and planning sessions and to register on or before October 24, 2025 through this link: <https://tinyurl.com/MGNationalOrientation>

Board and lodging, travel expenses, and other incidental expenses of the participants will be charged against the FY 2024 Multigrade Education Continuing Funds subject to the usual accounting and auditing rules and regulations. Participants may arrive at the venue one day before the activity officially begins to ensure they are well-rested and fully prepared for the activity. However, the accommodation costs for this preliminary day will be borne solely by local funds. Should the downloaded funds prove insufficient to fully cover all travel expenses, any remaining balance will likewise be supplemented by local funds.

Compensatory Time-Off (CTO) will be granted to the participants in lieu of the workshop day/s falling on either a holiday or a weekend, in accordance with CSC and DBM Joint Circular No. 2, s. 2004.

For queries or clarifications, please contact the BLD-TLD Multigrade Team through email at multigrade@deped.gov.ph or mobile nos. 09237352494 or 0929747 7749.

Immediate dissemination and compliance of this memorandum is requested.
