To: OIC- Assistant Schools Division Superintendent
Chief-EPSs, CLMD and SGOD
School Heads, Secondary and Elementary Public and Private Schools
School Paper Advisers and LPNHS SPJ Elective Teachers
All Others Concerned

1. With its mission to promote and sustain excellence in campus journalism, DepEd Tayabas City, in cooperation with the Regional Association of School Paper Adviser (RASPA), and Regional Association of Communication Arts Supervisors (RACAS) will conduct the 2017 Regional Training on Campus Journalism Caravan which will highlight seminar- workshops in school paper management and campus journalism categories for Quezon, Lucena and Tayabas Chapter on May 7-9, 2017 at Gabaldon Hall, Quezon National High School, Lucena City.
2. Specifically, the training aims to strengthen Quezon, Lucena and Tayabas School Paper Advisers' competence in producing quality and winnable school publication and promote sharing of best practices among the Most Outstanding School Paper Advisers (MOSPA), NSPC winning SPAs and Regional cliniquing facilitators/ trainers.
3. This 3-day training is live-out. Each participant shall be responsible for their own transportation, food, accommodation and other related expenses.
4. Registration will start at 7:00 am to 8:00 am. Opening program follows observing Juan Time Policy.
5. The lists of identified participants to attend the training in elementary and secondary schools are attached. Please send a replacement for the Chief SPAs who cannot attend the training.
6. Also attached are the lists of DACATA officers from Tayabas who will report earlier to prepare the training venue and the needed materials relative to the conduct of the training.
7. A three-day service credit leave shall be given to the teacher-participants while one-day compensatory leave shall be given to SDO Officials/ employee for attending the weekend activity.
8. For your queries and other concern, you may contact Richelle F. Quintero, EPS – English/ Journalism.
9. Immediate and wide dissemination of this memorandum is desired.
