Subject: 57th National Rizal Youth Leadership Institute (NRYLI) Conference on 10 - 14 December 2019, DepEd Teachers' Camp, Baguio City

Dear Secretary Briones:

Greetings!

The Knights of Rizal (KoR), a public corporation chartered under Republic Act No. 646, is a civic, patriotic, cultural, non-partisan, non-sectarian and a non-profit organization mandated to promote the ideals and teachings of Dr. Jose Rizal, particularly among the Filipino youth.

Pursuant to this objective, the KoR designed the National Rizal Youth Leadership Institute (NRYLI) to provide venue among youth leaders for them to be more aware of contemporary issues affecting them. NRYLI intends to identify their effective roles as future leaders of the country taking into consideration the vision of our national hero. NRYLI aims to inculcate in the minds and hearts of our youth leaders the tenets of leadership, character building, pride of our race that are essentials of civic-spirited and responsible citizenship.

The Institute presents nationally prominent and quality speakers alongside group dynamics & team building sessions. Aside from the sessions, friendly competitions and contests are facilitated to foster and showcase students' talents. Prizes in terms of cash, medals, certificates and books will be awarded to all contest winners.
