SUBJECT: FACULTY PRESIDENTS TO PARTICIPATE IN A DIVISION-WIDE RESEARCH

DATE : July 12, 2018

In support of the Department's policy to promote and strengthen the culture of research in basic education, and likewise to reassure its support to our Region's advocacy for a transparent, ethical, and accountable governance, this office requests the participation of FACULTY PRESIDENTS of all elementary and secondary schools in a qualitative research.

The research entitled, The Essence of SCOUTERSROCK Through the Lenses of Faculty Presidents in Tayabas City aims to seek answer to the following open-ended questions:

1. How do the participants perceive the elements of SCOUTERSROCK being lived and witnessed in the school communities of Tayabas City?
2. How do their experiences of SCOUTERSROCK affect their participation in the initiatives of the school and of the Division?

Relative to this, all the faculty presidents are enjoined to attend the Orientation on SCOUTERSROCK, July 17, 2018 at 3:30 P.M. at the Yellow Building near the SDO to be facilitated by Ma'am Lot Saldares. Subsequent activities shall be advised later.

Wide dissemination of this Memorandum is desired.
