Message

I have always been proud that once I was a teacher. The young learners will forever be etched in my heart. Being a teacher is a great honor, we cradle the youth- the leaders of tomorrow.

This World Teachers' Day, I call on all of you, teachers, to embrace who you are and what you can become. You are more than just a bearer of knowledge but a candle that would bring a spark to the youth. You are not merely a facilitator in the classroom, but also a parent and a friend to the children under your care. Take courage and hold your head up high for you are an unsung hero.

Let your talent and wisdom cascade in the Division of Tayabas City.

Let your vision and love for education build more dreams and aspirations.

Let your light shine like a star!

Mabuhay ang mga Guro... hawak mo sa iyong mga kamay ang kinabukasan!

Dr. Catherine P. Talavera, CESO VI
Schools Division Superintendent
Public Servant
