SUBJECT : UNESCO Asia-Pacific Centre of Education for International Understanding's (APCEIU) Request for the Dissemination of the Survey on the Enhancement in Global Competency of the Programme Participants from 2017~2019

DATE : 21 September 2020

This has reference to the official communication from Ms. Minsol Kim, Assistant Programme Specialist, UNESCO- Asia-Pacific Centre for International Understanding (APCEIU), Office of the International Teacher Exchange regarding their request for the dissemination of the Survey on the Enhancement in Global Competency of the Programme Participants from 2017-2019.

Due to the COVID-19, APCEIU could not implement the Asia Pacific Teacher Exchange (APTE) this year. In line with this, it would be an opportunity to see APTE alumni's achievement and make the programme more fruitful in the future.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION OFFICE

Office of the Director

APCEIU is conducting surveys of 2017-2019 alumni to see how Global Competency is enhanced after their participation and to analyze the programme's effectiveness.

Clear Statement of Request and Recommended Action

The Office of International Teacher Exchange (ITE), UNESCO APCEIU, is requesting for dissemination of the survey to Filipino teachers who joined the Korea-Philippines Teacher Exchange Programme (KPTEP) from 2017 to 2019 alumni and fellow teachers of the participant's current school or neighboring school with similar experience (years of teaching experience for elementary school teachers and subject for middle school teachers.)
