OFFICE OF ASEAN AFFAIRS

Our Ref. No. : Div 4- 280-JMW-2020
Subject : Call for Nominations for ASEAN Prize 2020
Date : 02April 2020

Dear Colleagues,

The Department of Foreign Affairs' Office of ASEAN Affairs (DFA-ASEAN) is pleased to announce that ASEAN is now accepting nominations for the ASEAN Prize starting 01 April 2020 until 13 July 2020.

The ASEAN Prize aims to recognize inspiring achievements and contributions of an individual or organization that foster the ASEAN identity, promote the ASEAN Spirit, and champion the ASEAN way. A Judging Committee, consisting of eminent high-level members, including incumbent and former ASEAN Secretaries-General, will select a recipient who will be awarded the ASEAN Prize Trophy and a cash prize of US$20,000. This year's prize will be presented during the 37th ASEAN Summit in Ha Noi, Vietnam on November.

The inaugural Prize was awarded in 2018 to a Filipina, autism advocate Erlinda Uy-Koe, for spearheading many initiatives to enhance autism awareness which impacted the lives of thousands of autistic children and adults in the region.

All agencies are kindly requested to disseminate the above information and the attached relevant documents as guidelines for nominations.

For more information on the ASEAN Prize procedure, please visit www.asean.org/asean-prize or email us at asean.div4@dfa.gov.ph. Submission of nominations may be sent to the latter email address.

Attached is the application form for the ASEAN Prize, as well as the publicity materials, for your guidance.

Thank you.

Very truly yours,
For the Secretary of Foreign Affairs:

JUNEVER M. MAHILUM-WEST
Assistant Secretary

ASEAN Prize 2020 calls for nominations

JAKARTA, 1 April 2020 – ASEAN today launched the call for nominations for ASEAN Prize 2020.

Dato Lim Jock Hoi, Secretary-General of ASEAN said "At a time when the world is facing an unprecedented challenge in COVID-19, we see the best of humanity through the sacrificial efforts of frontline medical and health workers, and those who keep essential public services running at great risks to their lives. Their examples remind us that there are many heroes out there and we should shine a light in their work." He emphasized that "ASEAN Prize is one way that ASEAN honours their outstanding contributions to our community."

Established in 2018, this annual regional award honours exemplary achievements of an ASEAN citizen or an ASEAN based-organisation in deepening collaboration between ASEAN Member States and/or with the world through people-to-people connectivity, and social or economic cooperation to benefit the peoples of ASEAN, among others.

Nominations will be reviewed by a judging committee to be chaired by the incumbent Secretary-General of ASEAN and his predecessors.

The recipient of ASEAN Prize 2020 will, at the 37th ASEAN Summit in Ha Noi, Viet Nam, receive the ASEAN Prize Trophy and a cash prize of US$20,000, sponsored by Temasek Foundation of Singapore and Yayasan Hasanah of Malaysia.

This is the third edition of the ASEAN Prize. In 2018, Erlinda Koe, a dedicated community leader from the Philippines, was the inaugural recipient to be awarded with the Prize for her efforts in building an inclusive ASEAN Community by raising awareness on autism and championing support to families-in-need across the region. In 2019, the ASEAN Prize was awarded to Dr. Jemilah Mahmood, an ardent humanitarian leader from Malaysia for her immense contributions to support humanitarian responses in ASEAN.
